FRIENDS OF HOME LABOR, LOOK AT THIS!

"England may rely upon GEN. PIERCE for effectual co-operation.—Manchester (England) Examiner.

"The primary question for the United States in the election, as it is for ourselves in the electoral contests of this week, is the national sanction, and indefeasible establishment of Free Trade. The triumph of the connidade of the Democratic party, brought forward by the men of the South, will secure, probably for ever, the ascendency of liberal commercial principles. In this respect, and on this point, we take Gen. Pierce to be a fair representative of the opinions of Mr. Calhoun, and, as such, a valuable general ally to the commercial party of the country. Gen. Pierce has our best wishes for his success.—London (England) Times, July 6, 1852.

"When the Celt has created the Atlantic, he begins for the first time in his life to consume the manufactures of this country (England) and indirectly to contribute to its customs. We may possibly live to see the day when the chief produce of Ireland will be cattle, and English and Scotch the majority of her population. The nine or ten millions of Irish, who by that time will have settled in the United States, cannot be less friendly to England, and will certainly be much better customers to her than they now are."—London Times.

Friends of Internal Improvements, Read this!

Resolved, That the Convention does not confer on the General Government any power to commence and carry on a general system of Internal Improvements.—Baltimore Democratic Platform.

"Look at that list! On one side, in favor of the measure, you will see all the Northern votes, with the exception of a few ever-faithful and never-too-much-to-be honored Northern Democrats. Among these last, our eyes rest with inexpressible pleasure upon the name of HARRY HIBBARD, of New Hampshire and the friend of FRANKLIN PIERCE, and, we believe, the Representative of his District. A little lower down is that of PEASLEE, another Granite State Democrat. With Hibbard, Peaslee, and Jackson, stand nearly every Democratic member of Congress from the South."—Savannah Georgian, on the River and Harbor Bill.

This bill is the first of the sort that has been passed for a long time, and it will be the last for four years at least. FRANKLIN PIERCE will come into power on the 4th of next March. A strict construction and respect for the constitution is the Medean law of the Democratic party; and Mr. Pierce, besides that general reason, is bound by every idea of consistency, and by every fact of his past career, to veto every bill like this. He will do it, if they are presented to him, JUST SO. SURELY AS THERE IS A SUN IN THE SKY."—Richmond Examiner, River and Harbor Bill.

Friends of Equal Rights, Read this!

THE NEW-HAMPSHIRE TEST.—"The failure of that Convention IS DIRECTLY TRACED TO THOSE HUNKER LEADERS, PIERCE, ATHERTON & CO., who were determined that it should either be entirely subservient to their partisan views, or be what it was, an abortion. They succeeded, and to them belongs the honor."—Concord Democrat, June 12th, 1851.

The Protective Policy.

If there is any one thing more surprising than another in the history of politics in this country for the last 12 years, it is the manner in which a large portion of the voters suffer themselves to be led by the nose by the leaders of the self-styled Democratic party, in opposition to home interests and the protective policy. For the greater number of our adopted citizens, who come to this country where the people rule, it is not at all wonderful that they should ally themselves at first to that party which has stolen and appropriated the name of "democracy;" nor is it strange that they should for a long time follow, or aid, its fortunes, when it is considered that the tone of the German Democratic press is copied from that of the papers in English, and that these latter are as remarkable for their loud and reiterated professions of good will for the people, as their party is meagre in its practice of good actions.

It may seem more strange, that the large class of our voters, who are born and bred in this country, and who have seen the workings of this sort of democracy, should follow its leaders so blindly. But any one who considers the matter for a moment, will see how the thing is managed. The young men who are brought up in the Democratic schools, and under influences of that kind, are taught, not what the early Presidents, and more particularly Jefferson and Jackson, did say with regard to the protective policy, but that they were opposed to such a policy, and were Free Trade men. So they grow up, and thousands of them, young fledgling lawyers and others, who have never read the messages and letters of those Presidents, get up in public meetings, obtain possession of newspaper columns, and in every other possible manner, spread the watchword of their party—"attachment to the principles of Jefferson and Jackson."

It matters not that the friends of Home Labor insist that neither Jefferson or Jackson held any idea on the subject, except that of ample protection to Home Labor. It matters not that the Whig press from time to time assert this fact, and prove it by extracts from their writings. The so called democratic press call the assertions "Whig lies," and refuse to let their readers see the proof.

Our duty is none the less plain in the matter. About once a year, we have been in the habit of publishing the proofs of which we speak, and we intend to continue that course in future more frequently. There are some men who will read.

Without further preliminary, we invite the candid attention of our democratic readers to the following extracts from messages and letters of the Presidents FROM WASHINGTON DOWN TO VAN BUREN:

"The advancement of agriculture, commerce and manufactures, by all proper means, will not, I trust, need commendation; but I cannot forbear intimating to you the expediency of giving effectual encouragement, as well to the introduction of new and useful inventions from abroad, as to the exertions of skill and genius in producing them at home."—Washington's Annual Address.

"Congress has repeatedly, and not without success, directed their attention to the encouragement of manufactures. The object is of too much consequence not to insure a continuance of their efforts in every way which shall appear eligible."—Washington's Last Annual Address.

"To cultivate peace, and maintain commerce and navigation in all their lawful enterprises; to foster our fisheries, as nurseries of navigation and for the nurture of man, and to protect the manufactures adopted to our circumstances—these, fellow-citizens, are the landmarks by which we are to guide ourselves in all our proceedings."—Jefferson's 2d Annual Message.

"The situation into which we have been forced has impelled us to apply a portion of our industry and capital to national manufactures and improvements. The extent of conversion is daily increasing, and little doubt remains that the establishments formed and forming will, under the auspices of cheaper materials and subsistence, the freedom of labor from taxation with us, and of protecting duties and prohibitions, become permanent."—Jefferson's 8th Annual Message.

"We have experienced what we did not then believe, that there exists both profligacy and power enough to exclude us from the field of interchanges with other nations: that to be independent for the comforts of life, we must fabricate them ourselves. We must now place our manufactures by the side of the agriculturist. The former question is now suppressed, or rather assumes a new form. The grand inquiry now is, shall we make our own comforts, or go without them at the will of a foreign nation? He, therefore, who is now against domestic manufactures, must be for reducing us either to a dependence upon that nation, or be clothed in skins, and live like beasts in dens and caverns. I am proud to say that I am not one of these. Experience has taught me that manufactures are now as necessary to our independence as to our comfort."—Jefferson's Letter to Benj. Austin, Esq., Boston, 1816.

We shall continue our quotations to-morrow.

Rail Road Iron.

The price of railroad iron in England has gone up from $21 to 31 per ton. This adds also under our ad valorem tariff $6 per ton to the duty, thus increasing the protection when it is least essential, and diminishing it when it is most needed by the hard driven manufacturers.

So low has been the price of railroad iron, for three or four years past, that all the works for the manufactury of it in the country have been abandoned. Within a few weeks, one or two of the works in the United States, encouraged by the advancing prices, have commenced operations, giving employment to a large number of workmen.

Within the last three years, nearly 400,000 tons of railroad iron, worth over nineteen millions of dollars, have been imported into the United States from England.—N. Y. Express.

Here is a striking illustration of the manner in which our present Loco Foco Tariff helps the British manufacturer of Railroad Iron, at the expense of the American. The first operation of this ingeniously contrived measure, was to break down the American manufacturers altogether, and thus secure the entire American market to the British Iron-mongers, without competition. The next effect of this beautiful specimen of Loco Foco legislation, is to raise the price of Railroad Iron ten dollars per ton; all for the benefit of the British manufacturers, our own having long since quit the field! And the result of the whole is, that during the last three years, we have sent over NINETEEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS to England, to pay for Railroad Iron, every pound of which could just as well have been made at home. Thus this "[illegible]sure," which Mr. PIERCE, if British Free Trade [illegible] Whigs," drives elected, is to "push to its utmost [illegible]" the American manufacturer from the field, protects his British rivals from competition, raises the price of the fabric for the latter's benefit, and compels us to pay an annual tribute of MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, to the Capitalists, Cotton-spinners, and Iron-mongers of Great Britain! Is it any wonder that "public sympathy" in England, should be "enlisted on the side" of Mr. PIERCE, or that the London Times, the leading organ of British commercial policy, should tender him its "best wishes for his success"?

Afraid to Publish the Vote.

We again call the attention of the People of Wisconsin to the fact that the PIERCE papers, throughout this State, while claiming that their candidate and party are friendly to Western Interests and in favor of River and Harbor Improvements, carefully withhold from their readers the vote by which the River and Harbor bill has just passed the House of Representatives. That vote emphatically refutes the claim they set up that New Hampshire Democracy, or FRANKLIN PIERCE, its embodiment, favors appropriations by the General Government for purposes of Internal Improvement. Two-THIRDS of the Democratic Members of the House either dodged the question, or voted against the bill. THREE-FIFTHS of the Democratic Members, present and voting, recorded their names in opposition to the bill. And among the NAYS were Messrs. PEASLEE and HIBBARD, the two Democratic Members from New Hampshire, the friends and representations of FRANKLIN PIERCE! Men of the West! Look at this vote and beware how you confide the powers and duties of the General Government to the ENEMIES OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS AND OF HOME INDUSTRY!

☞ The Washington Republic, acting as mouth-piece for Gen. Scott, has found a mare's nest and to the voters of the United State presents the charge, and that the charge is true. Nothing of the sort. What the Republic charged and proved was, that while Gen. PIERCE was held up, all over the South, as especially the friend and champion of Southern Interests, Slavery included, he had some years since, at a public meeting in his own State, from motives of political expediency, made a speech against the Fugitive Slave Law. Nobody, not even our Waukesha neighbour, believes that Gen. PIERCE is opposed to that law, nor did the Republic charge that he was. It merely showed up his double-dealing; a trick which his supporters are imitating on other questions besides those relating to Slavery. As to this very charge indeed, the Washington Union, and the Southern supporters of Mr. PIERCE, indignantly deny that he ever made such a speech, and produce affidavit upon affidavit in support of this denial; while the Waukesha Democrat coolly assumes, and wishes its readers to believe, that the charge cannot be denied "because the proof is to the point!"

ANOTHER LIST FOR GEN. PIERCE.—A late number of Wilmer and Smith's European Times gives the following account of the state of public feeling in England, in reference to the next Presidency:

"As regards England, public sympathy, it is needless to say, is enlisted on the side of the Democratic candidate. Not that Gen. Pierce is considered the better man. That is quite another matter. He is merely accepted as the nominee of that great party in the Union who desire to push the principle of Free Trade to its utmost limits."

This is a true bill. England goes for PIERCE because he favors British Free Trade. Should not America, profiting by the example, stand up for her own interests and protection to Home Industry?

A mistake! The London Times supports Scott, because it is of opinion, that while success in the coming election is "important to British interests."—Morning News.

The London Times supports SCOTT "over the left." Its "best wishes" are for Gen. PIERCE whom it rightly regards as "a valuable practical ally" for England.

LIGHT HOUSES ON LAKE MICHIGAN.—We learn from Capt. MILLER, the efficient Superintendent of Lights on the North Western Lakes, that our fellow-citizen ALANSON SWEET Esq., has nearly completed the Lighthouse at Bailey's Harbor, and that it will be ready for use in a week or two.—Capt. MILLER has just concluded a contract with Mr. SWEET for re-building the Lighthouse at Kalamazoo, on the Michigan Shore, which was undermined and carried away during a violent storm in the early part of the summer. The contract for the new Light House at Two Rivers has been awarded to Messrs. SMITH & ALDRICH, enterprising Merchants of that town, who are to have it completed and ready for use by the 1st or 15th of October.

THE LAST "DODGE."—Mr. WM. R. KING, the democratic nominee for the Vice Presidency, voted against the motion to take up the "Homestead Bill." So did Mr. NORRIS, the "democratic" Senator from New Hampshire, Mr. PIERCE's own State. This being rather a troublesome fact, the Banner, the German Democratic organ in this city, seeks to counteract it by coldly representing Mr. KING, its own candidate, as a WHIG!

RESIGNED.—We understand from the Madison Democrat, that Judge Larrabee has resigned his office as Judge of the Circuit Court.—Watertown Register.

The public is incredulous on this point, notwithstanding the assertion of the Democrat. All doubt could be removed at once by the publication of the document.

NORTH CAROLINA BETTER!—The Telegraph last night reports that the Whigs have certainly carried the popular branch of the North Carolina Legislature and probably a majority on joint ballot—both largely against us last year. Old Rip is waking up! She will be wide awake in November.

A SOLDIER'S BOUNTY.—Among the soldier's patents issued under act of Sept. 28, 1850, J. E. Heald, commissioner, 40 acres of land are given to "Thurlow Weed, private, Captain Seward's and other Companies, New York Militia, War of 1812."

☞ The Waukesha Democrat tells a story of some "democratic" editor who has been brave enough to promise to publish entire any speech made by Gen. SCOTT. Does the Democrat make the same offer?

A Soldier's Testimony.

We copy, from the N. Y. Dutchman, the following manly article, rebuking in fitting and indignant terms, the outrageous slanders circulated against Gen. Scott, by the more unscrupulous portions of the Loco Foco press. The editors of the Dutchman are radical Democrats, but they are none the less true-hearted Americans, who take a just pride in the fame of WINFIELD SCOTT, and will not, for party's sake, stoop to rob the old soldier of his well-earned laurels. We commend both their precept and example, to our neighbor of the News:

DISGRACEFUL.—The attacks made on Generals SCOTT and PIERCE. Were they foot pads they could not be more shamefully abused. Some writers think that the only way to be a politician, is to turn black-guard, and that he is the most useful editor who is least fit to associate with a gentleman. A few days since the Pennsylvanian published a statement, showing how Gen. Scott was court-martialled "for using insulting language to his superiors, embezzling funds belonging to poor soldiers, and how he challenged sick ing to meet him in mortal combat, and dodged his adversary's ball after having the first fire."

Such statements disgrace the American Press, and should entitle the writer to the privileges of the bowspend. We were with Gen. Scott from the bombardment of Vera Cruz to the conquest of the City of Mexico, and we know that a brave or a kinder-hearted man never drew a sword or spared an enemy.

As a Democrat, we shall vote for Gen. Pierce for President. We do this, not because we consider Gen. Pierce a more patriotic man than Winfield Scott, but simply because we have a greater admiration for his political platform. That man never lived whose love of country exceeds that of Old Churubusco.

The writer who would charge Winfield Scott with cowardice and embezzlement, should go a step further, and hon... ...n Washington as a traitor, or Franklin for an idiot. Such ... made by the Pennsylvanian will only result in injury to the Democratic party. If that paper is really in favor of Gen. Pierce, the fewer flings it contains at Gen. Scott's courage and manliness, the better. In the history which will be written fifty years hence, the name of WINFIELD SCOTT will occupy a position that is second to none in our annals.

AN IRISHMAN'S TESTIMONY.—Mr. P. QUIN, an Irish man of New-Hampshire, who has been speaking his opinion of Gen'l Pierce, has been assailed by somebody in the N. Y. Herald, and comes out in a reply which cannot fail to tell wherever it is published. We copy the concluding paragraph:

The London Times, the organ of the persecutors of my race, speaks in favor of him, and says he will be a great accession to British interest if elected. This Sir, is enough to let my country men know what they ought to do. Not so with our illustrious hero. Not a word in his favor, but that he is the greatest living General. They have not forgotten what he has said on a former occasion, that for every Irish prisoner of war that should be sacrificed two Englishmen should bite the dust. And then when his fondest hopes were realised, in seeing those poor fellows whom he attended to once more walk American soil, said he, "I have fought many battles, but never was so near being killed as I was by the embraces of those poor fellows;" and now that he is once more in the field, to fight one more battle, I trust my countrymen, whom he has said never turned their back on the enemy, will not now desert him until we proclaim him Chief Magistrate of the Union.

Free Soil Convention at Pittsburg—Balloting.

The following is the report to the New York press of the ballottings at the recent Free Soil National Convention:

1ST BALLOT FOR PRESIDENT:

J. P. Hale	192	Charles Durkee	1
S. C. Phillips	1	Thomas H. Benton	6
Gerrit Smith	3	Salmon P. Chase	1
Goodell, Cl'k	1	Adams	1

New York voted 24 for Hale, 6 for Benton, 1 for Durkee, 3 for Gerrit Smith, 2 for Chase.

Massachusetts, 8 for Hale, 1 for Phillips, 1 for Adams, 2 for Chase.

Both Maryland and Wisconsin, at first voted for Durkee, but changed their vote for Hale.

The vote was declared unanimous.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a Vice President with the following result:

George W. Julian	124	G. M. Clay	1
Samuel Lewis	93	J. M. Collins	3
Joshua R. Giddings	16	George H. Evans	1
Thomas H. Benton	1

Maryland voted for Lewis, Pennsylvania for Lewis, Virginia 5 for Giddings, New York 2 for Evans, 3 for Collins 1 for Durkee, 1 for Lewis, 17 for Julian, Kentucky 11 for Julian, 2 for Lewis.

Mr. Lewis addressed the Convention, asking his friends the permission to withdraw his name. He spoke warmly in praise of Julian of Indiana and withdrawing, moved that the Convention unanimously nominate George W. Julian of Indiana, for the Presidency.

Several Ohio Delegates objected, while others refused to force Mr. Lewis on the Convention.

Mr. Harding of Maryland, state that the first choice of Indiana was Samuel Lewis, but as that good man was for Julian, Indiana accepted the high honor proposed to be rendered her. The second ballot then commenced, and Gen. W. Julian of Indiana, was unanimously nominated for Vice President, with the exception of 16 votes from Pennsylvania and 4 from New York for Lewis

QUITE A DIFFERENCE.—John Y. Smith, Esq., formerly editor of the Madison Argus, and an old stager of the party, having been quoted by the few papers which support the party's Judicial ticket, as having expressed himself against the volunteer system of bringing out candidates, and in favor of the nominees, comes out in a card in the Argus correcting these statements. A couple of paragraphs will show where Mr. Smith stands:

"I did not say that the volunteer system of bringing out candidates for the Judiciary, had worked badly. On the contrary, I think it has thus far worked well. What I said was, that it was those and not these objections, and that objections might be brought against any and every method of bringing candidates before the public—that the convention system, if regarded as a means of exciting emulation between opposing parties, as to which could bring forward the best men, with the understanding that every man should be at liberty to choose between and amongst the two sets of candidates according to his own appreciation of their fitness, would be as unexceptionable as any other.

I did not say, or did not intend to say, that I was well satisfied, nor that I was dissatisfied with the nominations. I remarked that the candidates, or a majority of them, were men of ability, though I thought they had got the cart before the horse; and, that, on the whole, the nominations were as good as could have been expected.

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION.—The Fond du Lac Journal, reviewing the proceedings of the late Judicial Convention, thus emphatically dissents from the resolution, passed by that august body, to doawny with special Elections for Judges:

We disapprove of this resolution. The Democratic party never called upon its delegates for an opinion upon this subject; and they appear to have forgotten that the were only the servants of the party instead of its dictators.—Such fiats should go forth from the great body of the party instead of to it. And when has the subject been canvassed, and how was the decision made known to this august body of delegates? By instruction? By popular feelings and expressions? No.

We have charity for the opinion in the resolution, that the separation of the Judicial from other elections has failed of the result anticipated,—as the convention doubtless judged by its own acts. Yet that is by no means a test.

☞ An extensive Webster movement is on foot in this State. The Wilmington Commercial, the oldest and ablest Whig paper in the State, has hoisted the name of WEBSTER for President and GRAHAM for Vice President.—Morning News.

Gammon! The Wilmington Commercial is neither the "oldest," nor the "ablest" Whig paper in North Carolina, and the "Webster movement," upon which the News relies so confidently, will prove a "flash in the pan." Our PIERCE friends will find, when too late, that they are only catching at "straws."

A LATE CALL.—The Watertown Register says:

We call upon every laboring man to reflect seriously before he becomes a victim to the idea of Whig protection of Home Industry.

That is just what the laboring men have been doing, and the result is that they have made up their minds to be "victims."

Dreadful—isn't it?

SAD ACCIDENT AT HARTLAND.—A man by the name of SIMON D. GALE was so badly hurt by his horse running away on Sunday last, that he died on Monday. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

☞ Hornellsville, the point of connection between Buffalo and New York City and the New York and Erie Railroads, it appears is growing quite rapidly. According to the Tribune, two hundred substantial buildings will be erected this year. The population of the village last January was 1,800.

Gen. Scott "a Demanter"!

This is among the last of the slanders which have found tongue in the columns of the Albany Atlas, and kindred unprincipled Presses. Like all the other slanders, however, which are uttered against the Old Soldier, they recoil upon their authors. This slander has attracted the attention of one of Gen. Scott's early companions, Gen. Armor of Carlisle, Pa. He is a Democrat, but he cannot sit still and hear his beloved commander libeled, and has therefore published a reply to this latest slander. He says:—

I find that the Pennsylvanian is hard put for slang against an old and gallant soldier, General Winfield Scott, an ornament to the American army. One charge made against him, I see, is that of having "kept back and pocketed two months pay of the soldiers under his command," while a captain in the army in 1808. This is charged as an act of "dishonesty" on the part of Gen. Scott. I know the particulars of that matter, and know that although General Scott's conduct was inquired into, he was fully acquitted of all intention to defraud the men in question.—This was the decision of the Court Martial. I will state some particulars. Captain Winfield Scott obtained a furlough from his commanding officer for a few months in the year 1808, and while at the city of Washington, his furlough was extended to the year 1809, and he was thus absent from his command one pay day or muster. Perhaps the men that were not paid were on detached service themselves, as it was quite common at their time to send soldiers with boats a long voyage for military stores.

It was nothing uncommon, therefore, that a part of a company would be absent on pay day. I know of many circumstances of the kind, and was with one hundred and twenty men absent from a regiment, which we joined only one day after pay day, and did not receive any pay for six months, so that the one hundred and twenty soldiers and officers might have preferred charges against the pay master for withholding their pay, as the Lieutenant did against Capt. Scott in the year 1809. [illegible] on the Pennsylvanian's [illegible] Capt. Scott was [illegible] charge, but was convicted on a charge [illegible] direction towards his commanding officer, but restored to duty shortly after.

I have known soldiers to be nineteen months without pay. They were not with their regiments and could not be mustered. At the Court Martial for the trial of Capt Scott, in 1809, but two soldiers appeared as witnesses against him, so I presume they were all that had any pay due them. Case of the man who had sold his pay for two dollars and fifty cents. It was quite common at that time for a soldier to sell a month's pay for two dollars; in some instances fifty cents had bought a months pay. So that if Gen. Scott held back the pay of a few men, it was for a good purpose, as the Court Martial decided that the money was not kept back with the intention of defrauding his men. Politicians will put a different construction on things for political purposes, but it is hardly worth their while to go back as far as the reign of the Cæsars to hunt up charges of dishonesty against Gen. Scott.

From the Hartford Daily Courant, Aug. 5.

Scott and the Boundary Question.

Another situation in which WINFIELD SCOTT showed the versatility of his talents, and the adaptedness of his mind to the affairs of peace as well as war, was in his agency in settling the difficulties that arose from the disputed boundary between the United States and the British provinces.

The origin of the dispute, its progress, and its termination are well known, for there are of too recent a date not to be remembered. They grew out of the geographical ignorance of those who made the treaty of 1783, fixing the boundaries of the United States and the British provinces. Each claimed a certain territory; each had exercised sovereign powers within it, and each, exasperated by opposition, was preparing to resort to arms.—The danger of war was imminent. So strongly was this felt, that a measure was promptly passed by both Houses—unanimously by the Senate—conferring upon President Van Buren power to call out the militia for six months, and to enlist fifty thousand volunteers. They likewise appropriated ten millions of dollars for these objects.—This was according to the advice of Scott, although it conferred an immense power upon the President, but the Democrats of those days did not indulge in the silly twaddle of centralization—indeed, they never do only when out of power.

Maine had sent a land agent, with a posse, to drive out intruders from the disputed territory. This body of men were seized and confined in prison in New Brunswick. The people of Maine were much excited, and after trying in vain negotiations with and letters to Sir John Harvey, the Governor of New Brunswick, they organized a military force. The Legislature placed eight thousand volunteers and $800,000 within the power of their Governor. Sir John took the same steps, and British troops were marched towards the contested territory. Everything threatened war. The people on both sides were eager for it.

Things were in this condition when Gen. Scott reached the frontier. Here was a glorious opportunity to gather a new crop of military laurels—a new situation where "the feathers and the plumes" of a military chapeau could be won. Winfield Scott loved peace better than war. He knew that the crop of laurels could not be gathered without the aid of the sickle of death. To their growth it was necessary that they should be nourished with tears and blood. The least irritation on his part—the least encouragement of the belligerent spirit everywhere breathing around him—would have excited two a nations to a long, expensive, and bloody warfare, destructive alike of the interests of both. But Winfield Scott did not choose to manifest that irritation; he did not wish to place the torch to the pile of combustible materials he saw around him. He negotiated, calmed, soothed, quietted, and the affair was settled, the excitement quelled, and the way paved for the acceptance of the Ashburton treaty, so ably negotiated by Daniel Webster.

Scott's first efforts were directed to calming the excitement of the Legislature and the people of Maine. In this he was successful, and obtained from them such conditions as would be acceptable; but they desired that the Governor of New Brunswick should take the initiatory steps. But Sir John Harvey had quarreled with the Governor of Maine, and no communication existed between them. It so happened, however, that Scott and Harvey had been fellow-soldiers. Their intercourse had commenced early on the field of battle, and the friendship of generous foes existed between them. A renewal of their correspondence took place, and Harvey was induced to take these conciliatory steps that would satisfy the Maine Legislature, and preserve peace. That body were then persuaded by Scott to withdraw their troops from the disputed territory, and both parties united in submitting the subject to negotiation.

Thus was settled, by one man, a quarrel that might have led to the most serious consequences. Has not the Whig candidate then earned the title of THE PACIFICATOR, as well as that of the greatest military commander of the day? What service has Gen. Pierce rendered to his country in Congress or out of it, that has ever equalled in greatness, in importance, this one act of Scott?—It stands alone in his grandeur, as much above the deeds of such an ordinary man as the pyramids tower above the felt-built tents of the Arabs of the desert. In what unutterable littleness and insignificance do the petty trivial votes of Franklin Pierce dwindle when compared to this act of pacification with all its consequences.

The Land Question.

Resolved, That we are opposed to any law for the distribution of the proceeds of the Public Lands, as inexpendient in policy and repugnant to Constitution.

This is the Platform of the National Democratic Convention in 1852. It is only one among many evidences of their hostility to anything like a liberal policy in regard to the Public Domain. It is a platform upon which their candidates will willingly stand, if anything may be judged from their votes. In 1839, a bill came before the Senate of the U. States providing that, when any of the public lands of the United States have remained unsold for the space of fifteen years, they may be entered and purchased to the number of 50 acres, by actual settlers, at fifty cents an acre. The vote was taken, and stood Ayes 22, Noes 24. There were just two majority against it. These two were FRANKLIN PIERCE AND WILLIAM R. KING.

There is seldom a greater perversion of words than that by which this party is styled "Democratic." On each of the leading questions of the day, they take the side of Aristocracy. They have no encouragement for American Labor, either by protective tariffs, or Protection, or access to the Public Lands, or their proceeds. They build up an Aristocracy of Wealth in England, an Aristocracy of Religion in New Hampshire, and an Aristocracy of land on the Public Domain.—But Laborers who earn their bread by daily exertion, need look to them for neither employment, nor votes, nor homes.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

JUDICIAL ELECTION.—The disaffection and dissatisfaction in regard to the Locofoco nominations for Judges is growing more and more apparent every day. From all parts of the State there seems to be but one opinion in regard to this question among the honest, thinking portion of community, and that is, that we must have an independant no-party ticket to fill these important stations. In regard to the office of Chief Justice, the public finger points with unerring certainty to Hon. EDWARD V. WHITON as the man for that station.—Madison Palladium.

☞ Civilians are now often represented in full feathers, mounted on horseback, with swords and plumes dangling and floating.—Free Democrat.

The New Hampshire civilian was thus mounted in Mexico, but he never remained mounted long at a time. Perhaps he thought the position unbecoming a great civilian.—Louisville Jour.

Free Soilers Read.

A Tennessee friend has sent us Parson Brownlow's Whig of July 3d. It is rich, and contains an account of the meeting the Parson got up in Knoxville to oppose the election of Scott. The meeting was large. Mr. Swan spoke against the nomination, and Col. Temple and Judge Boyd in favor of it, and the meeting sustained the nomination by an overwhelming majority.

Some of the Parson's reasons for not sustaining Scott, we commend to our free soil readers.—He says:

"We like the men personally, but we are against their speeches, and positions, and their point-no-point candidate, who is neither more nor less, than the old dot of a Jackson-hating, and corrupt association of Northern Abolitionists."

Again:

"But in the late Convention, the aggressive candidate was sustained by one wing of the party, and opposed by another, from sectional considerations alone; and now that he has been selected by Free Soil votes alone, with the exception of eight Virginia renegades, he will have to rely on Northern votes alone for every electoral vote he gets. These Virginia converts to Free Soil principles can do nothing for him in the present contest."

"The result is disgraceful to the party, and insulting to the South. It is an outrage upon the rights of the South, which every Independent man South of the Potomac will feel called upon to resent. And those who suppose the Whigs of the South will not repudiate this nomination, know nothing of the materials of which our people are composed

And here comes Scott's worst crime. Alas! poor Parson.

"Gen. Scott is a Free Soiler—has been for years—and by the mad struggings of Northern fanatacism, he was nominated for the Presidency. His disloyalty to the Compromise, in refusing to give it his open and active support—his miserable, shuffling, craven delinquency, that admitted of no avowals on this vital subject, alone secured his nomination. And the infamy and bitterness of his "Higher Law" associates, who would control his Administration, if elected, warrant the belief that "Repeal" would be the cry as soon as his election would be made certain. Beside, in his old published letters, he sets forth the institution of slavery as the worst feature of American government! We repeat, that do not charge him with being an Abolitionist, but he is an avowed Anti-Slavery man, and the tool of Abolitionists!"

Fire Insurance.

We clip the following notice from the New York Courier and Enquirer—B. W. Griswold Esq., is Agent for the "Equitable" in this city:

The Montreal Fire.—By the following it will be seen that the Equitable Fire Company of London, of which J. Leander Starr, Esq., of this city is Agent, has acted with prompt liberality towards the unfortunate sufferers by the late destructive conflagration in Montreal. Such acts have done much to alleviate the deep distress into which thousands were thrown by that painful calamity:—

EQUITABLE FIRE OFFICE,
26 Cornhill, London, July, 23, 1852.

To the Local Directors at Montreal:

Gentlemen:—At the request of the London Board of Directors, I lose no time in expressing to you their deep concern on the occasion of the late melancholy and disastrous conflagration in your city.

I have the pleasure to transmit to you the copy of a resolution of the London Board passed this day, and to request your attention to it: at the same time, to express their confidence that in attending to the claims of the insured, the interests of the Institution will have your due consideration, and that the sympathy which is naturally excited on both sides of the Atlantic for the sufferers in this wide spread calamity, will secure for such of them as may have to apply to us, the most prompt and kind attention.

I am, gentlemen, yours faithfully,
(Signed,) HUGH CROFT.
For self and the other Directors.

Copy of the resolution referred to:—

Resolved, That this Court having learned by report from America that an extensive fire occurred at Montreal on the 8th inst., and although no particulars are yet received, there is reason to fear that it has involved claims of more than ordinary amount upon this Company, the Court therefore requests that the Local Directors at Montreal will promptly proceed to the adjustment of any claims which many arise from said conflagration, and draw upon the London Office for such amount as may be sufficient to enable them immediately to pay such claims in full.

General Pierce on Slavery.

Washington, Saturday, Aug. 14.

The Republic of this morning publishes a correspondence between Edward De Leon, late Editor of the Southern Press, and FRANKLIN PIERCE. Mr. De Leon asks PIERCE if the reports published of his New-Boston speech are correct? PIERCE replies that the report is grossly and absurdly false. He asserts that he has always been denounced as a pro-Slavery man by the Manchester Democrat, and Concord Independent Democrat, but refers to his course in Congress, and his acceptance of the Democratic Platform, as a guarantee of his soundness on the Slavery question.

He further says—"I am not surprised to know that the attempt to prove me an Abolitionist, provokes much merriment among men of all parties here—and this weak and untruthful sketch of what purports to be my speech, is really too ridiculous to be consided in any serious light."

Pierce's letter is dated Concord, July 23.

GRANITE CLUB.—Judge Knowlton of Crawford, and Col. Benjamin Allen, of St. Croix, are expected to address the Granite club this evening. Let there be a general attendance.—Madison Argus.

Judge Knowlton has a seat upon the present supreme bench, and the "Granite Club" he was expected to address is the Pierce and King club of Madison. If this kind of service is a part of the duties expected from the political nominees of the late democratic state convention, we think it will be advisable for the people to leave them in a position where they can meet the expectations of their friends without sacrificing the acknowledged proprieties of official station, or hazarding the loss of that respect of all classes they should seek to acquire and strive to maintain.—Janesville Gazette.

WATER WORKS.—We hope that our citizens will not be long in considering their course relative to the Water Works. A speedy and ample subscription to the stock of the Company ought to be made, in order that the contractors may move forward. There is money to be made by the investment, and we may just as well have the dividends paid out here as sent off to the East. Add to this the considerations of health and safety from fire, and we dont see how there can be any hesitation.

WATER AGAIN.—That valuable institution, the Montgomery sprinkler, was in operation again yesterday, performing its regular rounds and rendering the street comparatively cool and pleasant. And yet there are some people who don't like water, clear and undiluted!

METROPOLITAN HOTEL, N. Y.—Messrs. SIMEON LELAND & Co., give notice in our columns, that their magnificent Hotel, with the praises of which the press has teemed for a year past, will be opened to the public on the 1st of September, at $2 per day for the price of board.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Board meets this afternoon. In addition to the usual business before them, the Aldermen will, we hope, take prompt action relative to the Sunday Ordinance, and the removal of Engine Co., No. 2.

RUNNING UP STREAM.—The pumps at Bridgeport have pumped into the canal all the water that was in the river a week ago, and the water of the lake now fills its place. We understand that the canal is supplied with lake water as far South as Lockport; a fact that is ascertained by a clear blue appearance. The effect of bringing a constant current of pure lake water into our river must, we think, be beneficial to the health of those living immediately upon its margin. The pumps are immediately at Bridgeport have a capacity to take water wheel at Bridgeport have a capacity to take from the river, every five minutes, a body of water 40 by 120 feet and five feet deep. THE TRIBUNE.

SCOTT Leads the Column!—Forward!

"Now, brothers, now is the hour!"

THE publishers of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE proffer copies of their regular and full Weekly issue (eight large pages, each six columns, of Literature, Politics and News), for the remainder of the Presidential Campaign, commencing with the 4th of August and closing with Nov. 25th, when we confidently hope to announce their triumph—on the following terms:

1 copy for the 13 weeks	$0 37½
6 copies, to one address	2 00
10 copies do do	3 00
25 copies do do	7 50

Payment in all cases to accompany the order.

The selection of WINFIELD SCOTT for President and WILLIAM A. GRAHAM for Vice-President, has gratified our ardent wishes and strengthened our earnest hopes. Our conviction has long been fixed that Gen. SCOTT is the very man tried and marked out by his heroic achievements, his inestimable services, at critical periods, in preserving our National tranquility and preventing the effusion of blood—by his unquestioned integrity, his self-devoting patriotism, his unequivocal position and his immunity—to unite the Whig Masses in one enthusiastic, invincible host and lead them on to victory. So believing, we have labored and hoped for the nomination, and we now confidently look to the result to glorify our success and crown our anticipations.

THE TRIBUNE, standing on its own Platform and knowing no other authority but truth, will do its utmost for the election of SCOTT and GRAHAM; but it will not be absorbed by Political discussion. We have chosen to ponder Campaign subscribers a large sheet rather than a small and cheaper one, and to present in the same, as nearly as may be, all the matter which is to-day found in the columns of the Daily, to which we wish to extend the knowledge of what THE TRIBUNE habitually is. The letters of our Associate, BAYARD TAYLOR, from Egypt, Syria, the Holy Land, Greece, Turkey, Constantinople, &c., will appear every week, with reviews of new Books, Proceedings of Congress and the General Foreign and Domestic News of the day. If there is another Journal in the country more valuable or interesting than THE TRIBUNE, it is not because more money or labor is spent thereon.

All the Editions of THE TRIBUNE are printed in large Quarto form, on a sheet 31 by 42 inches, showing eight large and compact pages of reading matter. About half the Daily is devoted to Advertising, every line of which appears in our other issues. No ten dollar daily in the world contains more reading matter than THE TRIBUNE, which is afforded at $6 per annum, or $3½ for three months.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE:
One copy (per annum) $3; Two do. $5; Ten do. $20.

WEEKLY TRIBUNE:
One copy (per annum) $2; Three do. $5; 5 do. $10; Twenty do. (to one address) $30.

☞ Payment in all cases required in advance.

Subscriptions for THE CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE, or either of our regular issues, are respectfully solicited. All notes of specie paying banks taken at par and may be remitted at our risk. Please address

H. H. RAYMOND'S
Spherical Disinfecting Fluid,

FOR purifying the air of sleeping and sick rooms, cabins and holds of ships, particularly for passenger ships, at sea or in port, prisons, crowded rooms in general, from offensive, close and infectious air of all kinds, including the infectious spheres of cholera, typhus, yellow, bilious, scarlet and other fevers of our own Southern and Western climates, in cities and towns, on land and water. Also, for disinfecting the bodies, clothes, and trunks of persons who are in or have been in the atmosphere of infectious diseases.

This fluid is healthy to breathe or take internally, and instead of filling the room with a choking, irrespirable air, as the chloride of lime and other chemical preparations do, it makes the whole air sweet and salubrious, and at the same time strengthens the respiration and enlivens the spirits of those present, by its balmy, fragrant and tonic influences.

THE WORLD'S FAIR
PREMIUM SAFES.
DEPOT,
Green Block, Water St.,
(Between Maiden Lane and Wall Street,)
NEW YORK.

THE SUBSCRIBER PLACED HIS FIRE AND BURGLAR-Proof Iron Safe in competition with the whole world at the great Exhibition in London, for which an impartial jury awarded a medal.

The American Fair, held last fall at Castle Garden, also awarded him a gold medal for the best Fire-Proof Safe, and he has never failed to obtain the highest premium when his Safe has been put in competition with others for that purpose. Certificates have been received from the following well-known mercantile houses, who have had their books, papers and money preserved in these superior Safes within the last thirty days, (and can, with many others be seen at my store,) viz. Messrs. Stillwell & Monrose, and Mr. J. L. Watkins, in the Fulton Street fire; Messrs. Fisher & Robinson, and Messrs. John Lockwood & Co., in the great fire corner of Liberty and Nassau Streets, and Messrs. Proud & Bowman, in Jersey City.

I am the proprietor of HALL'S PATENT LOCK, which obtained a medal (in the name of Adams & Co., Boston,) at the World's Exhibition, and is considered the best Lock for the price, ever invented, being proof against powder, and the Key is no larger than a coin, and can be made changeable.

I invite all purchasers to a close and careful investigation before purchasing, and decide for themselves, who makes the best Fire, Burglar and Dampness Proof Safes combined.
